JOHNSON STORE CROWDED DURING BIG WATER SALE

Necessary to Close Doors for Time—One Sales Lady Makes 198 Sales

The water damage sale of Johnson's Department store is attracting people from distances of 100 miles from Bismarck. So great was the crowd in the store Friday afternoon that it was necessary to close the doors about 4:30 p. m. This is the second time during the sale that it has been necessary to close the doors to accommodate the crowds. The store believes it has the champion saleslady of Bismarck. Her sales slips for Friday show that she made 198 sales, one every two and one-third minutes. This includes the time necessary to show the articles, make the sales slip, get the package back from wrapping and make change. The accomplishment is considered as remarkable by store managers. There are 37 sales ladies on hand to dispose of the big stock of water damaged goods at special prices, and it is estimated that 5,000 people passed in and out of the store yesterday. The sale will continue for a few days until the stock of water damaged goods is cleaned out.

COX'S PAPER HIT TRAVELING MEN

Editorial Attack Will Come Before St. Paul Council of Salesmen's Society

St. Paul, Oct. 2.—An editorial headed "Selling Cost," printed in the Dayton News, Governor James M. Cox's paper, in which traveling salesmen were referred to as "unmitigated bores" is to be brought to the attention of the St. Paul council of the United Commercial Travelers Saturday night, it was said yesterday. The editorial will be brought before the traveling men under the head of "communications." Rules of the order will prevent formal action, traveling men declared. J. D. Shields, 225 West Fifteenth street, Minneapolis, wrote Governor Cox, demanding an explanation. Charles E. Morris, secretary of the Democratic candidate for the presidency, replied that the editorial was published while Mr. Cox was governor of Ohio and not in actual charge of his newspaper, that a retraction was printed and that such matters should not be brought into the campaign.

G. O. P. Withholds Comment
Officials of the Republican State central committee declined to comment on the incident yesterday. Democrats said that Secretary Morris' letter should be sufficient explanation. The editorial was printed in the Dayton, Ohio, News, August 15, 1914. It said in part:

"The art of salesmanship is a good deal of a nuisance to the public. It has come to the point where every business of any magnitude must employ a purchasing agent, whose time is largely wasted by men who want to sell him something and from whom he has no intention of buying. Yet he must treat them courteously and listen to long rhapsodies in which he is not the least interested."

"If there is no purchasing agent, somebody else has to submit to innumerable interruptions of salesmen who are unmitigated bores."

"If a man would exercise the first impulses of his heart, he would kick them out of his office if they did not take the first hint. That the salesman escapes with a whole skin in every instance speaks volumes for the good nature of the long suffering business man."

"If these statements apply to the 'traveling man' what shall be said of the activities of the multifarious 'agent' who has for sale every device under the sun?"

"The housekeeper who has not the most forceful manner and who is not willing to be cold and brusque is at the mercy of peddlers who go from door to door."

"The man in an office building is no more immune unless he is strong enough to be in an office building which forbids agents to circulate, or is fortified by a private office sentinel by an alert and ever watchful office boy or secretary."

Editorial Printed Twice
The Sample Case, official organ of the U. C. T., is authority for the statement that the editorial was reprinted by the Springfield News, the governor's other paper, before the retraction appeared in the Dayton News and that the retraction did not meet with the approval of the traveling men of Ohio.

Charles E. Morris' letter in reply to Shields' letter follows:

"This will acknowledge the receipt of your letter addressed to Governor Cox. I think Mr. John A. Millener, general counsel of the United Commercial Travelers of America, probably is familiar with the circumstance referred to in your note. I can only say that the editorial referred to, printed in the Dayton News, August 15, 1914, was printed at a time when Governor Cox was functioning as chief executive of the state of Ohio, that when the matter was brought to his attention in Columbus a retraction was immediately demanded of the editor who wrote it, and the editor accepted full responsibility and severed his connection with the paper the first of the following morning."

"This, of course, was a matter of deep regret to Governor Cox, who numbers among his very warmest friends some of the best known traveling salesmen in the country. Now in frankness let me ask you if it does not appear in all honesty that the campaign for presidential election is in bad shape when issues vital to the country cannot be offered for discussion but one of the parties to the contest must resort to pettiness of this nature, going back so far as six years ago, in fact, to find a place of attack. "I would be glad to supply you with further information you desire," Robert E. Braden, head of the Harding-Coolidge-Preus Traveling Men's League of Minnesota, has returned from Marion, where he headed a delegation of Minnesota traveling men last Saturday. "Senator Harding made a great speech to the traveling men gathered from all over the country," Mr. Braden said. "After that demonstration I am convinced that the traveling men are solidly behind Mr. Harding for the presidency."

DODGE COMPANY WON'T CUT PRICE TO HURT QUALITY

M. B. Gilman Company Receives Word from Detroit Factory of Decision

Official confirmation of press dispatches from Detroit, announcing that there would be no reduction in the price of Dodge Brothers motor cars, has been received by M. B. Gilman Co. the Dodge Brothers dealer in this city. A telegram from C. W. Matheson, acting general sales manager to the local dealer, reads:

"Dodge Brothers policy has ever been to give full value for the price asked. There will be no reduction in the present prices of Dodge Brothers motor cars. Newspaper reports to the contrary are absolutely untrue."

"Dodge Brothers announcement was no surprise to us," said M. B. Gilman. "In fact it is only a substantiation of Dodge Brothers business principles. At no time have they ever demanded an excess amount for their product. As in the past, they will continue in the future to demand a fair return for their efforts." "The mere fact that the demand for Dodge Brothers motor cars is still greater than the supply, despite the great expansion program at the factory has absolutely nothing to do with the decision to continue the present price. In marketing their car Dodge Brothers have never made a point of price and will never sacrifice the quality of their product to enter price competition."

INDIAN CHIEFTAINS CALL FOR TALKS BY ANTI-TOWNLEY MEN

Indians chiefs don't want one side of politics. A big Indian fair is being held at Ellsworth, and Governor Frazier made an address at the fair this week. Nearly 5,000 people were present, it is said. Afterwards the Indian chiefs said they wanted to hear the other side, and calls were sent out for speakers. W. H. Stutsman, of Mandan, independent candidate for railroad commissioner, was to address the Indians today. The Indian chiefs asked that former Governor Hanna talk to them. It seems that the Indians have unusual respect for Governor Hanna. He is expected to address them tomorrow.

CLOVER MACHINE IS SUCCESSFULLY USED IN STATE

Agricultural College, N. D., Oct. 2.—A machine for threshing sweet clover seed in the field without cutting the plants is being tried out at the Datus C. Smith farm northwest of Blanchard, where the manager, George Hillstad reports the machine to be doing very good work.

The inventor, G. P. Luedke of Springfield, Ill., is at the Smith farm at the present time, observing the work and making plans for a few minor changes to adapt the machine to North Dakota conditions. This threshing machine is pushed by four horses, the plants being bent at an angle and guided against a beater, which removes the seed, and an air draft blows it onto a conveyor, which carries the seed to a box. It is claimed that about 15 acres of sweet clover can be threshed per day with this machine. Mr. Luedke expects to have the machine on the market next year.

WATER RATES UP
Minot, N. D., Oct. 2.—Beginning with October, payments consumers water rates will be increased 25 per cent. The increase is to take care of the increased costs of operation of the plant. The surcharge is only temporary, according to G. S. Woledge, city attorney. This is the first raise in water rates here since Oct. 1, 1917.

PRICE REDUCTION

IN ORDER to keep in pace with the level of raw material prices declining, we beg to call attention to the new change in prices on all Studebaker Cars. It is not a case of wages falling down the reason for this change in price; or an over-stocked market of Studebaker Cars; but the cause rests on shrewd buying of raw material and large output, together with manufacturers being compelled to put their goods down to reasonable values. It has always been the policy of the Studebaker plant to give the car buying public every advantage of the market conditions, and this is one of our chances now. We will be pleased to demonstrate at your convenience.

Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson Outlines Stand at Minot Convention

Minot, N. D., Oct. 4.—The repeal of the present law legalizing Sunday baseball, the stricter enforcement of the anti-cigarette law, elevating the movies to a higher plane of morality, was advocated by Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, president of the North Dakota Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in her annual address at the thirty-first annual convention of that body in session here. Mrs. Anderson characterized the women's dress of today as immodest, declaring she had no defense of the mothers who allowed their daughters to dress fashionably.

"We are celebrating at this convention the ratification of the Federal Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. We are celebrating the first year of National Constitutional Prohibition. We are also celebrating the victory for three out of four moral measures submitted to the voters of the state at the presidential primary election. It is fitting that at this meeting we should rejoice and give

Legislative Victories.
"The federal suffrage amendment was ratified in the North Dakota senate by a vote of forty-one to four and in the house by a vote of 102 to six. Mrs. Wythe and I represented the state W. C. T. U. at the signing of the ratification in the governor's office, and the state W. C. T. U. received one of the pens which Governor Frazier used in signing."

"The fight of the session was to prevent the passage of bills repealing our anti-cigarette law, and the law prohibiting Sunday theaters and moving picture shows, for Sunday baseball with admission, and for an athletic commission, which was a camouflage for repealing the law prohibiting prize fights. We were greatly gratified over the defeat of these bills, but before the legislature adjourned the work of circulating petitions to initiate these measures was begun."

ESCAPED AN OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Many Such Cases.

Cairo, Ill.—"Some time ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and every one told me the same but I kept fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I have since then and I keep house and am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one grand medicine."

—Mrs. J. R. Matthews, 2311 Sycamore Street, Cairo, Ill.

Of course there are many serious cases that only a surgical operation will relieve. We freely acknowledge this, but the above letter, and many others like it, amply prove that many operations are recommended when medicine in many cases is all that is needed.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential), Lynn, Mass.

EVENTS AND GOSSIP FOR THE FANS

SERIES MONEY IS SPLIT MANY WAYS ANNUALLY

REGULATIONS STRICT

New York, Oct. 2.—Division of the thousands of dollars paid by baseball fans to witness the world's series games is annually the topic of curious interest as is the division of any large sum of money. The regulations under which the money of the world's series is at present divided has become so involved that the average fan has lost interest in trying to solve, while the games are being played, just how much the winning and losing teams will receive. And it is no easy task to arrive at this conclusion because the money is divided in several different ways.

10 Per Cent to Commission.
The principal interest of the baseball fans centers in the amount the players who take part in the big games will receive.
The first provision in the cutting of the big baseball "melon" is that ten percent of the gross receipts of all games goes to the National Commission. Next comes the players' pool, which consists of 60 percent of the balance (after the Commission's ten percent has been taken out) of the receipts of the first five games. The other 40 per cent of this balance goes into the pool to be divided equally between the owners of the clubs.
Then if more than five games are necessary to decide the championship, the receipts of those games are divided, 10 per cent to the National Commission and the other 90 percent to the club owners' pool.

Certain Regulations.
There are certain regulations for the division of the players' pool and the club owners' pool which are not generally understood and which can be illustrated better by figures than by words.
Take for example that $100,000 represented the receipts of a game. First of all 10 per cent or $10,000 would be set aside for the National Commission. That would leave a balance of $90,000. Sixty per cent of this, or $54,000 would go into the players' pool and the 40 percent of this balance or $36,000 would go to the club owners' pool. This division would be the same for the first five games.

The money in the players' pool would be divided as per the example before mentioned, in the following manner: Of the $54,000 mentioned as of single game, 75 percent or $40,500 would go to the players participating in the world's series to be divided on the basis of 80 per cent to the winning team and 40 per cent to the losing team. The other 25 per cent would go to a fund to be divided among the players of the teams or both leagues finishing second and third on the basis of 60 and 40 percent or $8,100 for the second teams and $5,400 for the third place teams.

There is another provision in the regulations which makes it possible to increase the amounts for each individual player taking part in the world's series. Since the regulations provide for a share of the "melon" going to the second and third teams, it also has been provided that if these teams engage in any post-season series, 50 percent of the players' share of the receipts shall be divided on the basis of 60 percent to the winner and 40 percent to the loser, and the balance shall go into the players' pool of the world series to be divided among the players of the contesting teams in the world's series and the players of the teams finishing second and third as explained before.

These regulations do not apply to post-season series between clubs finishing lower than third place.
Thus, it would be possible in the event of the two New York clubs finishing second in their respective leagues to play a series that would add almost as much to the players' pool as the big games themselves.

Where Owners Come In.
The owners of clubs taking part in the world's series do not get all the money from the receipts even after the shares of the National Commission and the players are deducted. The regulations provide that after these have been subtracted the balance of the gross receipts shall be divided equally between the two clubs. The club owners, however, are obliged to pay into the league treasuries of their respective leagues 50 percent of their gross receipts up to seven games and if it be necessary to play the eighth and ninth games, then 75 percent of the gross receipts received by the two clubs under this division shall be paid into the league treasuries.

As outlined above a game with receipts of $100,000 after five had been played, would give $10,000 to the National Commission and $90,000 to both club owners or $45,000 for each. Of this $45,000 each club for the sixth and seventh games would be obliged to turn back $22,500 to their respective league treasuries, and if they received a like amount from an eighth or ninth game they each would have to pay to the league treasuries 75 percent or $33,750, leaving $11,250 for each of the clubs.

SCANDAL BLOW TO THE "OLD ROMAN"

CHARLES A. COMISKEY

CHICAGO—Charles A. Comiskey, "the Old Roman," could hardly talk as he saw his tottering empire—his White Sox. Following the indictment of eight of his star players on charges of "throwing" the world series last year to Cincinnati, Comiskey immediately suspended them, wrecking his club's pennant chances.

Received a like amount from an eighth or ninth game they each would have to pay to the league treasuries 75 percent or $33,750, leaving $11,250 for each of the clubs.

BEST SOX CAN DO IS TO GET TIE

New York, Oct. 2.—Cleveland can clinch the American League pennant by winning one of the two remaining games, or by Chicago losing one of its two games.
The gap between the two rivals widened to two full games yesterday when the Indians broke even in a doubleheader with Detroit, and the White Sox lost to St. Louis.
The best Chicago can do now is to

ATTENDANCE RECORDS WON'T BE BROKEN AT 1920 WORLD SERIES

New York, Oct. 2.—Notwithstanding the general increase in baseball throughout the country it is unlikely that in the coming series to decide the world's championship that new records will be made in attendance for a single game or for the series. The reason for this is that the capacity of the parks where the games are to be played is insufficient to take care of the record books the top notch figures that have been established in previous years.

THE FALLEN IDOL

This picture of Eddie Cicotte was made in anticipation of his appearance in the world series, if the White Sox won. But the idol of Chicago fanatics, confessing that he "threw" the games he pitched in the 1919 world series, has pitched his last game of organized baseball.

MOVEMENT IS LAUNCHED TO NEW CONTROL

Baseball Magnates Would Change Conditions to "Clean up Game"

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Representatives of four major league baseball clubs last night started a movement designed to "clean up baseball for ever" by taking control of the game out of the hands of men financially interested and placing it under a "civilian tribunal" to be composed of men "of unquestioned public standing."
A letter was sent to every major league club and dozens of others interested asking their approval of the plan which was characterized as a means of "giving professional baseball to the American people—where it belongs—and taking ownership of it away from club owners and players."
The letter was signed by William Veeck, president of the Chicago National league club, Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago American league club, Barney Dreyer, president of the Pittsburgh club, and John J. McGraw, vice president and manager of the New York National league club.
It proposes that the national commission be abolished and replaced by a tribunal whose members would receive higher salaries than any one now connected with baseball. General Pershing, Major General Leonard Wood, former President William Howard Taft, Senator Hiram W. Johnson, Judge Keneaw M. Landis, and William Gilbreth McAdoo are some of the men proposed for the tribunal.
The tribunal would be in absolute charge of all organized baseball league, of the players, the managers, owners and league presidents, and its decisions would be beyond appeal or dispute.

one did I'd fix him so he would not try the same trick on any other player."

A players' fraternity is the only plan by which gambling among ball players can be "killed," said Jake Daubert first baseman. "Gambling must be stopped or baseball will cease to offer profitable employment to the players. This can be done by a fraternity that will bring players and managers closer together."
"The players would watch their teammates more closely and turn up any man acting suspiciously. Under present conditions players do not feel like protecting the game against these leeches in this way," said Hod Eller, Eddy Tamm, Ray Fisher, Greasy, Neale and Morris Rathall said they never had been approached by a gambler with a request to "ball a game" nor had they ever heard of any player being asked to throw a game for money.
All agreed gambling must be suppressed but said as long as players took the lead in selling games, they had no plan, at present, for eradicating the evil except to report suspicious actions of other players.

CHAMPION REDS WOULD PUT BAN ON BALL GAMING

N. E. A. Staff Special
Cincinnati, Oct. 2.—"Gambling on baseball must be suppressed or the game will go," says Captain Heinie Groh of the Reds.
"It appears some players involved have sought gamblers instead of the gamblers approaching the players. No gambler ever has tried to buy the if

1920 SERIES IS NOT FIXED BY GAMBLERS, SAID

New York, Oct. 2.—District Attorney Lewis of Kings County today issued a statement in which he declared investigation by his office had failed to disclose any plans to "fix" the 1920 series.
"My investigation has not disclosed a single position that there has been any attempt to 'fix' the coming series," said Mr. Lewis, in the statement exonerating all members of the Brooklyn Nationals, a competitor in the series.

U. OF N. D. AND MINNESOTA IN FOOTBALL CLASH

St. Paul, Oct. 2.—Ideal weather conditions greeted football enthusiasts today as they prepared for the University of Minnesota-North Dakota game at Northrop field this afternoon. It is the opening battle of the season for both teams and will be a foregone conclusion. Minnesota, suffering from adverse faculty rulings which eliminated three star players at the 11th hour has been driven at an unusually fast pace by Coach Williams in an effort to prevent a team which will make a strong bid for the conference championship from the beginning of the season. The Gophers are in great shape notwithstanding their losses.

Hoyne's office conducted the investigation for three or four days, and found enough evidence to satisfy him that the series was crooked, he said. Not enough evidence was found, however, to prove the fact, he added.

GEORGE SISLER HEADS BATTERS IN BIG LEAGUE

Ruth Closes Season With Record of 54 Home Runs for New York

Chicago, Oct. 2.—With the close of the major league season tomorrow, George Sisler, star first baseman of the St. Louis Americans and Roger Hornsby, shortstop of the St. Louis Nationals, seem to be certain of the 1920 batting championship of their respective league. Ruth closed the season with a record of 54 home runs.
Sisler, according to averages compiled today, is safely in front in the American league race, with an average of .405, with Tris Speaker, of Cleveland, second with .387, Joe Jackson, the suspended White Sox player, is third with .382, and Ruth the home run monarch is fourth with .375.
These averages include games of Wednesday.
In the National League Nicholson, of Pittsburgh, is second to Hornsby, with an average of .359. Hornsby's average was .370. Young, of New York, pulled up in third place with .354, and Roush, of Cincinnati, is fourth with .339.
The foreign commerce of the 20 Latin-American republics last year aggregated almost $5,000,000,000, against slightly less than $3000,000,000 in 1919.

PREXY NORTHROP IS 86 YEARS OLD

Minneapolis, Oct. 2.—Dr. Cyrus Northrop, president emeritus of the University of Minnesota, celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday Thursday.
Though hale and hearty and active in state political affairs, Dr. Northrop spent the day quietly at home where he received friends and messages of congratulation.
While Dr. Northrop has not been directly associated with the university since 1911 the welfare of the state institution was uppermost in the educator's mind today.
"The university is opening the year under favorable conditions," was his comment, "and under its new president I feel sure the administration will be excellent. Everything looks promising, though there are many difficulties with which to contend."
Dr. Northrop was born at Ridgefield, Conn., September 30, 1834. In 1858, on his birthday, he married. He took his B. A. degree in 1857, receiving his L. B. degree two years later at Yale. He came to Minnesota in 1884, succeeding William Watts Folwell, the first president of the university.

JOHNSON STORE CROWDED DURING BIG WATER SALE

Necessary to Close Doors for Time—One Sales Lady Makes 198 Sales

The water damage sale of Johnson's Department store is attracting people from distances of 100 miles from Bismarck. So great was the crowd in the store Friday afternoon that it was necessary to close the doors about 4:30 p. m. This is the second time during the sale that it has been necessary to close the doors to accommodate the crowds.

The store believes it has the champion saleslady of Bismarck. Her sales slips for Friday show that she made 198 sales, one every two and one-third minutes. This includes the time necessary to show the articles, make the sales slip, get the package back from wrapping and make change. The accomplishment is considered as remarkable by store managers.

There are 57 sales ladies on hand to dispose of the big stock of water damaged goods at special prices, and it is estimated that 5,000 people passed in and out of the store yesterday. The sale will continue for a few days until the stock of water damaged goods is cleaned out.

COX'S PAPER HIT TRAVELING MEN

Editorial Attack Will Come Before St. Paul Council of Salesmen's Society

St. Paul, Oct. 2.—An editorial headed "Selling Cost," printed in the Dayton News, Governor James M. Cox's paper, in which traveling salesmen were referred to as "unmitigated bores" is to be brought to the attention of the St. Paul council of the United Commercial Travelers Saturday night, it was said yesterday.

The editorial will be brought before the traveling men under the head of "communications." Rules of the order will prevent formal action, traveling men declared.

J. D. Shields, 225 West Fifteenth street, Minneapolis, wrote Governor Cox, demanding an explanation. Charles E. Morris, secretary of the Democratic candidate for the presidency, replied that the editorial was published while Mr. Cox was governor of Ohio and not in actual charge of his newspaper, that a retraction was printed and that such matters should not be brought into the campaign.

G. O. P. Withholds Comment

Officials of the Republican State Central committee declined to comment on the incident yesterday. Democrats said that Secretary Morris' letter should be sufficient explanation.

The editorial was printed in the Dayton, Ohio, News, August 15, 1914.

It said in part:

"The art of salesmanship is a good deal of a nuisance to the public. It has come to the point where every business of any magnitude must employ a purchasing agent, whose time is largely wasted by men who want to sell him something and from whom he has no intention of buying. Yet he must treat them courteously and listen to long rhapsodies in which he is not the least interested.

"If there is no purchasing agent, somebody else has to submit to innumerable interruptions of salesmen who are unmitigated bores.

"If a man would exercise the first impulses of his heart, he would kick them out of his office if they did not take the first hint. That the salesman escapes with a whole skin in every instance speaks volumes for the good nature of the long suffering business man.

"If these statements apply to the 'traveling man,' he will be the bane of the activities of the multifarious 'agent' who has for sale every device under the sun."

"The housekeeper who has not the most forceful manner and who is not willing to be cold and brusque is at the mercy of peddlers who go from door to door.

"The man in an office building is no more immune unless he is fortunate enough to be in an office building which forbids agents to circulate, or is fortified by a private office sentinelled by an alert and ever watchful office boy or secretary."

Editorial Printed Twice

The Sample Case, official organ of the U. C. T., is authority for the statement that the editorial was reprinted by the Springfield News, the governor's other paper, before the retraction appeared in the Dayton News and that the retraction did not meet with the approval of the traveling men of Ohio.

Charles E. Morris' letter in reply to Shields' letter follows:

"This will acknowledge the receipt of your letter addressed to Governor Cox. I think Mr. John A. Millener, general counsel of the United Commercial Travelers of America, probably is familiar with the circumstance referred to in your note. I can only say that the editorial referred to, printed in the Dayton News, August 15, 1914, was printed at a time when Governor Cox was functioning as chief executive of the state of Ohio, that when the matter was brought to his attention in Columbus a retraction was immediately demanded of the editor who wrote it, and the editor accepted full responsibility and severed his connection with the paper the first of the following month.

"This, of course, was a matter of deep regret to Governor Cox, who numbers among his very warmest friends some of the best known traveling salesmen in the country.

"Now in frankness let me ask you if it does not appear in all honesty that the campaign for presidential election is in bad shape when issues vital to the country cannot be offered for discussion but one of the parties to the contest must report to pettiness of this nature going back so far as six years ago, in fact, to find a place of attack.

"I would be glad to supply you with further information you desire."

Robert E. Braden, head of the Harding-Coolidge-Preuss Traveling Men's League of Minnesota, has returned from Marion, where he headed a delegation of Minnesota traveling men last Saturday.

"Senator Harding made a great speech to the traveling men gathered from all over the country," Mr. Braden said. "After that demonstration I am convinced that the traveling men are solidly behind Mr. Harding for the presidency."

DODGE COMPANY WON'T CUT PRICE TO HURT QUALITY

M. B. Gilman Company Receives Word from Detroit Factory of Decision

Official confirmation of press dispatches from Detroit, announcing that there would be no reduction in the price of Dodge Brothers Motor cars, has been received by M. B. Gilman Co., the Dodge Brothers dealer in this city. A telegram from C. W. Matheson, acting general sales manager to the local dealer, reads:

"Dodge Brothers policy has ever been to give full value for the price asked. There will be no reduction in the present prices of Dodge Brothers motor cars. Newspaper reports to the contrary are absolutely untrue."

"Dodge Brothers announcement was no surprise to us," said M. B. Gilman. "In fact it is only a substantiation of Dodge Brothers business principles. At no time have they ever demanded an excess amount for their product. As in the past, they will continue in the future to demand a fair return for their efforts."

"The mere fact that the demand for Dodge Brothers motor cars is still greater than the supply, despite the great expansion program at the factory has absolutely nothing to do with the decision to continue the present price. In marketing their car Dodge Brothers have never made a point of price and will never sacrifice the quality of their product to enter price competition."

INDIAN CHIEFTAINS CALL FOR TALKS BY ANTI-TOWNLEY MEN

Indians chiefs don't want one side of politics.

A big Indian fair is being held at Ellsworth, and Governor Brazer made an address at the fair this week. Nearly 5,000 people were present, it is said.

Afterwards the Indian chiefs said they wanted to hear the other side, and calls were sent out for speakers. W. H. Stutsman, of Mandan, independent candidate for railroad commissioner, was to address the Indians today. The Indian chiefs asked that former Governor Hanna talk to them. It seems that the Indians have unusual respect for Governor Hanna. He is expected to address them tomorrow.

CLOVER MACHINE IS SUCCESSFULLY USED IN STATE

Agricultural College, N. D., Oct. 2.—A machine for threshing sweet clover seed in the field without cutting the plants is being tried out at the Datus C. Smith farm northwest of Blanchard, where the manager, George Hillstad reports the machine to be doing very good work.

The inventor, G. P. Luedke of Springfield, Ill., is at the Smith farm at the present time, observing the work and making plans for a few minor changes to adapt the machine to North Dakota conditions. This threshing machine is pushed by four horses, the plants being bent at an angle and guided against a beater, which removes the seed, and an air draft blows it onto a conveyor, which carries the seed to a box. It is claimed that about 15 acres of sweet clover can be threshed per day with this machine. Mr. Luedke expects to have the machine on the market next year.

PRICE REDUCTION

IN ORDER to keep in pace with the level of raw material prices declining, we beg to call attention to the new change in prices on all Studebaker Cars. It is not a case of wages falling down the reason for this change in price; or an over-stocked market of Studebaker Cars; but the cause rests on shrewd buying of raw material and large output, together with manufacturers being compelled to put their goods down to reasonable values.

It has always been the policy of the Studebaker plant to give the car buying public every advantage of the market conditions, and this is one of our chances now. We will be pleased to demonstrate at your convenience.

Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson Outlines Stand at Minot Convention

Minot, N. D., Oct. 4.—The repeal of the present law legalizing Sunday baseball, the stricter enforcement of the anti-cigarette law, elevating the movies to a higher plane of morality, was advocated by Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, president of the North Dakota Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in her annual address at the thirty-first annual convention of that body in session here. Mrs. Anderson characterized the women's dress of today as immodest, declaring she had no defense of the mothers who allowed their daughters to dress fashionably.

"We are celebrating at this convention the ratification of the Federal Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. We are celebrating the first year of National Constitutional Prohibition. We are also celebrating the victory for three out of four moral measures submitted to the voters of the state at the presidential primary election. It is fitting that at this meeting we should rejoice and give

Legislative Victories.
The federal suffrage amendment was ratified in the North Dakota senate by a vote of forty-one to four and in the house by a vote of 102 to six. Mrs. Wyllie and I represented the state W. C. T. U. at the signing of the ratification in the governor's office, and the state W. C. T. U. received one of the pens which Governor Frazier used in signing.

The fight of the session was to prevent the passage of bills repealing our anti-cigarette law, and the law prohibiting Sunday theaters and moving picture shows, for Sunday baseball with admission, and for an athletic commission which was a camouflage for repealing the law prohibiting prize fights. We were greatly gratified over the defeat of these bills, but before the legislature adjourned the work of circulating petitions to initiate these measures was begun.

ESCAPED AN OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Many Such Cases.

Cairo, Ill.—"Some time ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and every one told me the same but I kept fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I have since then and I keep house and am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one grand medicine."

—Mrs. J. R. Martin, 3111 Spingore Street, Cairo, Ill.

Of course there are many serious cases that only a surgical operation will relieve. We freely acknowledge this, but the above letter, and many others like it, amply prove that many operations are recommended when medicine in many cases is all that is needed. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consultant), Lynn, Mass.

FULL OF PRUNES

Behold the lowly prune!
In days gone by anathema to every boarding house patron!

Doubled in production for export in two years and its export value increased five times.

Introduced to America by France a half-century ago, the one big coast state of California now produces three-fourths of the American supply, and more than all the rest of the world together. Exports this year are 114,000,000 pounds and as much consumed at home.

Cheapest of fruit for boarding house tables a few years ago, the prune is now a dish for kings and a standby of dieticians.

Six for breakfast each morning will head off the need for calomel, castor oil or kidney pills! With a frothy whip superimposed, a dish to set before royalty.

Time was when prune was a term of derision. And a plum was a thing much to be desired. Be it known, that every prune is a plum. But not every plum can be a prune.

And if you doubt that it is a superior grade of plums, indeed, that become the prunes of commerce, ask your grocer the price of prunes today.

MODERN MARVELS

Guests on Marconi's yacht, cruising in the Mediterranean, danced to the wireless music of an orchestra playing in London.

Well, well, this opens up possibilities, doesn't it?

If you see a man and maid cheek-dancing along Main-st in your village, it may be that they have suddenly caught the wireless output of some Broadway cabaret.

If Mrs. Jones of Kennebunkport drops the breakfast dishes and spends the day with Mrs. Brown at the continuous movies, it may be that her husband's dinner is preparing by fireless, conveyed from Mrs. Robinson's cooker at Yuma.

If the Reverend Mr. Psalter rebukes your absence from the morning service, you can claim that you caught it by choirless.

Maybe blowouts and punctures will all be promptly prepared by tireless, conveyed from Akron.

And maybe, at some time in the future, political campaigns will be conducted by liar-less!

THE MORTGAGE

"Shaking hands with the sheriff" was, in the old days, the whimsical way in which the victim tried to bear up and express it when the sheriff came from the county seat and foreclosed the well-known mortgage, which usually was held by the town's skin-flint banker. Most folks have the fear of death of a mortgage.

And it has been a popular institution without end, nevertheless. In fact, the real estate mortgage is the oldest investment on earth. It dates back as far, at least, as the days of Babylon, say 2100 years before Christ. Perhaps one doesn't remember the Egibi family? They were the Rothschilds and Morgans and Rockefellers all rolled into one of the period some 600 B. C. They made their money by loaning on city and farm property, taking mortgages as security. And foreclosing in the good old way that wipes folks out when they can't pay. The system is old. Only the method differed from now in a way.

Then, there was no paper upon which to write the details—no banks with safe-deposit vaults, no county recorder for legal filing. But the mortgage of the bankers of Babylon were recorded on a brick and for safe-keeping deposited in vaults made of huge jars buried in the earth. The fellows who invented interest and the mortgage were far from being financial fools.

THE DIFFERENCE

Senator Harding in one of the most eloquent of the many addresses delivered from his front porch has summed up the difference between the Republican and Democratic attitude toward our foreign relations. He was speaking last week on "Social Justice" when in the following language he laid down the major issue of the campaign:

"Here is the difference between our opponents and ourselves. There is no difference between us in our desire to help. But those who seek to induce America to join the Paris league would have to pledge ourselves body and soul. We and the American people, the fathers, sons, wives, daughters and mothers, reject the hazard of foreclosure on America at the will of others. We intend to hold our resources in our own hands to be given, not taken. It is for us to keep our conscience and our honor on our own hearths. Upon that principle, and because our conscience and our honor are still ours, I favor an association of free nations, and I care not what it be called or who has furnished the name.

"I know that the mothers and wives of America do not wish to give their sons and husbands for sacrifice at the call of an extra-constitutional body like the council of the Paris league. I know that the mothers and wives of America will give them only at the call of their own hearts, and honor, and conscience.

"I stand for a world association of free nations. I stand against an association of nations in which we will be under the flag of a world super-government, and no longer under the American flag. To serve mankind, it is not necessary to subject our country to foreclosure by the sheriff of internationalism. We stand for nationalism. We do not aspire to be citizens of the world; I, with the men and women of America, am proud that I, as long as I draw the breath of life, can say 'I am an American!'"

HARDING GAINS STRENGTH

The ferocity of Governor Cox's charges has done much to strengthen the prestige of Senator Harding. On all sides it is the common belief that the Democratic nominee has pitched the level of his campaign too low. In North Dakota the wild charges have aroused little interest.

Another stage of the campaign, however, is here. The Republicans have dragged a skeleton or two out of Cox's closet and doubtless he will be kept busy explaining his own campaign contributions which seem to be badly tainted by what he has heralded as the banal influence of big business.

Governor Cox probably has found out that it is dangerous to start slinging mud. The supply is usually unlimited in political campaigns. The Democratic nominee has been unable to besmear Senator Harding, but he has laid himself open to a vigorous attack and invites a most searching investigation into his own political past. What has been revealed to date is hardly complimentary.

The New York Sun sums the situation up accurately in the following:

"Candor compels us to say that such a succession of puerilities and futilities has never been witnessed in a Presidential campaign since the American stump was a two inch sapling. They measure the man. They are fast reducing to absurdity his case before a public tolerant in many ways during seasons of political activity, but especially impatient in the presence of crude damfoolishness."

MILLERAND

When European premiers have accomplished a national purpose by means of ruthless diplomacy, it is the custom to replace them by more suave statesmen. M. Millerand's elevation to the presidency of France is his replacement as premier. In his new post he will be a figurehead. Succeeding premiers will not have to rouse international antagonisms as M. Millerand has done. It will be their task to smooth the ruffled feelings of France's allies.

But the policy which the Millerand ministry has established will not be changed for the present. M. Millerand, as prime minister, sought to create a new grouping of continental powers, with France at the head. He succeeded. The French hegemony in Continental Europe is now an accomplished fact. M. Millerand did it. His successors will continue to keep his success secure until it becomes demonstrably a futile effort.

Neither hegemonies, international cross-currents, diplomatic finesse, nor high-sounding alliances will serve as substitutes for work. The imagination may be excited by dreams of national greatness accomplished by signatures to magic treaties. But national greatness was never so impossible without work as now.

Great Britain is indifferent to French hegemony in Europe, because the Anglo-Saxon intuition realizes the only way to help the world to its feet is to do more work. Great Britain has little thought for European alliances because she has so much thought for paying her debts. The French nation is on a different scent. It was started by M. Millerand. It will be followed for some time longer, until France discovers it leads to nowhere. Then, France, too, will discard international intrigue and will attend to her finances.

INCREASE CITY WATER RATE IN STATE'S ORDER

the accumulation of silt and sediment matter may require.

Notice of City Action

Inasmuch as the commission is required to take judicial notice of the fact that the city of Bismarck is instituting proceedings to cancel the franchise of the water company and condemnation proceedings for the purchase of the plant and property of the Bismarck Water Supply company, it therefore shall require that the installation specified and provided for by orders Nos. 4, 5 and 6 (which are putting in 18-inch main, install filtration plant, and install stand-by pump as above described) shall be completely installed and in place for rendering service nine months following the termination of the proceedings herein referred to, provided the property of the water company is still in the hands and under the management of the said Bismarck Water Supply company.

That the said Bismarck Water Supply company be required to keep a full and accurate account of the revenues and expenses of the company and file a full and complete report thereof with this commission at the expiration of each month not later than the 20th day of the month next succeeding, after the effective date of this order which report shall be in addition to any other reports required by law, and that the commission fully retain jurisdiction over the matter, this matter or change or modify the rates and charges upon the evidence and facts before the commission together with such other evidence as may be offered by any interested party or by the Bismarck Water Supply company.

Order a Long One
The order of the commission, covering 76 pages of legal sized paper, typewritten, goes into the history of the case, valuation of the plant and other matters. It recites the petition of the city commission of Bismarck, filed June 24, 1919, in the form of a resolution passed by the commission, complaining that the water service was inadequate, water impure and that rates are excessive for home consumption by law, and gardens setting out other complaints along the line.

A hearing was held, extending from Dec. 2, 1919, to January 19, 1920. Briefs were filed. The attorneys appearing were H. F. O'Hare, city attorney, and C. L. Young, special counsel, for the city, and for the water company: L. A. Simpson, R. L. Fraser and Miller, Zuger and Tillotson.

The history of the company was recited. It was incorporated in the state of West Virginia January 27, 1898. The charter expires in 1948. A franchise was granted by the city May 26, 1896 to the Bismarck Water company, which was succeeded by the Bismarck Water Supply company.

Slide in Hill

The commission engineers reported that for years, and at the present time, there is a gradual slide toward

WASHING FOR MILLIONS IS DONE IN MADRID BY RIVER MANZANARES; WOMEN HOLD MONOPOLY OF WATERS

Madrid, Oct. 4.—The laundrywomen of Madrid are probably the finest of their profession in the world. Nowhere else does the linen come home so delightfully clean and it is all accomplished with cold water. Within sight of the windows of King Alfonso's palace any day of the week, including Sundays, may be seen after a dry of snow-white linen spread out to dry along the banks of the Manzanares river in the turbulent water of this creek. It is nothing more in spite of its sonorous name, virtually all the washing for the million or so inhabitants of Madrid is done.

A closer co-operation than that of the Madrid washerwomen can scarcely be conceived. Some of those working here have been in the profession over 40 years, not always as past-mistresses; for they have to serve an apprenticeship lasting many years before they are permitted to undertake work on their own account. A woman coming with a bundle of linen to wash, all kinds of insults are hurled at her by the regulars; her linen disappears as if by magic and is found again only after long search. Any man not an ordinary dirty linen porter is in even worse case. He is splashed with suds and is lucky if he escapes with his clothing intact.

The experienced laundrywomen assert no woman learns how to wash properly until she has passed 40 years of age. Till then she must work as an underling to others, earning only the small pittance of one peseta daily for herself. When she sets up for herself she at once takes a modest fortune. It seems, however, they never retire to enjoy their riches for the call of the tub is too strong for them ever to desert the Manzanares until the final call comes.

(ton less accrued depreciation) $305,000; going value, $47,000; working capital, $4,000. Total $448,000.

Question of Adequacy
Regarding the question of adequacy the commission recites tests made showed that during the operation of the centrifugal pump it failed to supply the city by an amount of approximately 260,000 gallons of that required, which would be approximately 6,000 gallons per hour. The commission says it is of the opinion that the company should be required to install a pump of sufficient capacity to supply the maximum needs of the city.

Another charge made by the city was against the booster pump. The commission holds that the charge of inadequacy was not fully proved. The commission found the main failed to supply an adequate amount of water and that the pump could not be accelerated to the point necessary to furnish the service required. The remedy, the commission holds, is to increase the size of the main supply line from the reservoir to the city. This installation is required.

It would be an unreasonable order to require the company to install reserve power for operating its pumps the commission holds. The charge made by the city that the present mains in the distribution system are inadequate will be entirely removed by the installation of a larger supply line from the reservoir to the city.

Charges Against Water

All of the charges made by the city against the purity of water will be removed by the installation of an adequate filtration system, the commission holds. The commission found that with the introduction of chlorination whereby the water is treated with liquid chlorine, bacillus coli, has been entirely removed, with possibly one exception, in the spring of 1918.

The commission found that special rates for water have been granted the government for Fort Lincoln, the city schools, Indian school, McKelzie, Soo and Northwest hotels, Northern Pacific railway, St. Alexius hospital,

CEDAR RAPIDS MAN DECLARES IT WAS "SIMPLY AMAZING"

"Tanlac was surely the medicine I needed, for it has not only relieved me of all my sufferings but has built up my whole system," said Ambrose Hickabaugh, 1667 South Second street, West Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
"I had suffered from stomach trouble for four years. My appetite was very poor and I had indigestion so bad I could seldom retain a thing on my stomach and there was a bad taste in my mouth all the time. After eating there was a feeling like lead in my stomach, and if I ate anything the least bit hard to digest, I had terrible cramping pains, would bloat up dreadfully with gas, have severe headaches, and such awful dizzy spells I just had to sit down until they passed off.
"I had but little strength or energy left, my nerves were so badly unstrung and my sleep so broken I could not get the rest I needed.
"After reading several statements about Tanlac, I decided to try it myself, and after finishing my first bottle the results are really astonishing. My appetite has returned and I can eat just anything I want without suffering a particle afterwards.
"I no longer have headaches or dizzy spells and I sleep like a child all night. In fact I am a well man in every respect and owe it all to Tanlac.
Tanlac is sold in Bismarck by Jos. Breslow, in Driscoll by N. D. and J. H. Barrette, in Wing by H. P. Hoeman and in Strasburg by Strasburg Drug Co.

Hughes Electric company, city of Bismarck.

No Special Rates

The commission orders that these special rates be discontinued, except that as large users of water these consumers shall have the benefit of the regular scale for larger users. The commission holds special rates to users of water, because of the amount used, should be open to all consumers and not to special consumers.

Free water service such as has been given to officers of the water company, former employees, attorneys for the company, churches, the city hall, Auditorium and street fountains is ordered discontinued.
The salary of the superintendent is inadequate it is held. The commission orders his salary increased approximately $1,000 a year. A salary of $500 each for the president and secretary-treasurer is granted for 1921.
The commission estimates the rates will provide a return of 8 per cent on the capital of the company. This, based on a valuation of $448,000, requires an annual return of $35,840, to which must be added return for taxes, etc., making the necessary gross amount to produce 8 per cent, $45,336.
The order of the commission is signed by Commissioners Aandahl and Dupuis. Commissioner Milhollan dissenting.

Jerusalem Cobblers Worrying.

Jerusalem's large army of cobblers, who have been enjoying an undrained prosperity because of the terrible condition of the streets has kept them busy repairing shoes, are beginning to worry over lean days ahead. With the British administration and the Zionist commission engaged in improving the streets of the Holy city the cobblers see future days of little to do compared to the golden harvest they are now reaping, according to the Palestine Weekly, a new English newspaper published in Jerusalem. With plans under way for the establishment of shoe factories capable of a large daily output, which will bring shoe prices down to a low level, combined with the smoothness of the streets are now acquiring, the present opulent cobblers have reason to worry over the future, the Weekly chuckles.

Improving Canadian Highways.

Five million dollars will be spent this year in improving the main highways of Canada, through provincial and Dominion government grants. Two-thirds of this amount is being contributed by the federal authorities. This is the first year of the scheme and in view of the time occupied in preparing plans the initial year's outlay will not be as heavy as in succeeding years. The improvement scheme, however, is general. Every province from coast to coast has fled highway plans for approval by the Dominion highways experts. This is one of the conditions on which the money is voted for the purpose.

Consensus of our own exceeding vulnerability we side with him. English is as English does and when we feel the need of a little license we propose to take it. EVENTS AND GOSSIP FOR THE FANS

WORLD SERIES OPENS TUESDAY AT BROOKLYN

Demand for Seats for Blue Ribbon Contest Exceed the Capacity

TEAM PLAY DIFFERENT

New York, Oct. 4.—The world's series of 1920, the blue ribbon event of baseball, to decide the championship of America's national game, will be ushered in at Ebbets' field, Brooklyn, Tuesday.

The contesting teams, Brooklyn and Cleveland, champion respectively of the National and American leagues are perhaps more evenly matched than are world's series contenders generally.

The expose before the grand jury in Chicago of the crooked deal in connection with the world's series of last year apparently has had no effect on the coming games other than to make the players of both teams more determined than ever to make the contests a true test of relative merits.

Many Applications

Reports from both clubs are that the applications for reserved seats far outnumber the seats to be disposed of and with the unreserved seats to be sold on the days the games are played, it will be a case of first come, first served. Few fans resident outside of Brooklyn and Cleveland will find it an easy task to secure tickets and the formation of a line in front of the box office many hours before each game is expected.

The meeting of Brooklyn and Cleveland will bring together in the games two teams developed and managed by leaders of entirely different schools of baseball. Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn team is a graduate of the Baltimore Orioles of the early nineties, a team that in its day was in a class by itself. Manager Robinson has kept pace with the game and thus has been able to develop his team in accordance with what he deems the best methods of the old school as well as the better points of the modern system.

Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Indians is regarded as one of the greatest outfielders baseball has ever known. He is at present the only playing manager in any major league and what his leadership has seen, it is sufficient testimony to his ability as a leader to have developed in less than two years an aggregation of players able to win for Cleveland and its first championship in a major league circuit.

WHITE SOX ARE CHARGED WITH THROWING FLAG

Catcher Says Team Won When it Wanted to and Lost When Cleveland Lost

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Charges that certain Chicago White Sox players regulated their playing this season by the score board, winning or losing as the occasion demanded in order to keep the betting odds favorable were made last night by Hyrd Lynn and Hervey McClellan who said that as "Dench Warmers" most of the season they had studied the players carefully and were convinced the Sox were "thrown" out of the pennant.

"We lost the pennant because certain players—they are among the eight indicted by the Cook county grand jury—didn't want us to win," said Lynn. "We soon noticed how carefully they studied the score board—more than even the average player does in a pennant race—and that they always made errors which lost us the game when Cleveland and New York were losing. If Cleveland won—we won. If Cleveland lost—we lost."

McClellan said he was convinced certain players had deliberately "thrown" three games in Boston on the last eastern trip.

"Several of the players noticed how the score board affected the others," he added, "and we feel all along that these men were regulating their play according to the play of other teams."

No announcement has been given as to whether any of the White Sox players will be called before the grand jury when it convenes as a special session Tuesday to continue the baseball inquiry. It is believed, however, that several of the players against whom indictments have not been voted will be called to tell their views and give opinions as to the ease or difficulty of "throwing" games.

SAFE BASEBALL

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 4.—Congressman Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati announced here that he is investigating what scope congressional power may have in protecting baseball games. He said he favors baseball anti-gambling legislation and that he hopes to find means for congress to take speedy action.

NO GAMBLING

Duluth, Oct. 4.—There will be no gambling in Duluth on the outcome of the coming world's series baseball games, or on any other sporting events, in pool rooms, barber shops and cigar stores, if the police department can prevent it. Orders were issued today in Chief A. G. Fisk by Commissioner W. F. Murnan of the department of safety to curb all gambling.

LEADS THEM TO VICTORY

TRIS SPEAKER

Tris Speaker, manager and outfielder of the Cleveland Indians, which clinched the American League pennant Saturday, has had his greatest year. Batting near 400, second in the league, and fielding in great style, he has led his team all season. Speaker is the idol of the fans, and at Detroit Saturday he was surrounded by thousands after his team won.

BY DEAN SNYDER

The bigger the job the harder Tris Speaker tackles it and the brighter he shines.

The team's big chief of the Cleveland braves has outdone himself in the 1920 campaign.

The fires are burning brightly in the Forest City wigwag now. Tribe fans have got something extra to take with their meals this fall.

Spoke has entertained the American League galleries with one of the most thrilling war dances that was ever pulled off.

When the Indians' craft was placed under the guiding hand of Speaker he was untied as a leader. He had always been a star as a player.

But the test of any man is the responsibility of leadership. If he falls down on the job the greater short-changed him on that little something which makes greatness. If he makes good then he is a star with a sure enough twinkle.

This has come through. Not only has he shone out more brilliantly as a batter and fielder, but he has figured the trick of winning a pennant.

As a rule playing managers slump in their work on the diamond and soon retire to the bench to direct the team. It has worked the other way in Speaker's case. His playing record for 1920 will go down in the guide as being the best he has had during his 13 years in the big time.

be to watch the plays suspected and to arrest any one found placing bets on baseball clubs or on the world's series. Commissioner Murnan said his action grows out of the revelations made in connection with major baseball.

"PUNISH GUILTY," SAYS LAJOIE

BY LARRY LAJOIE.
(Former Big League Star)

Cleveland, Oct. 4.—There is only one course open to organized baseball.

That is to go through with this investigation to the finish, punish everyone who is found guilty of betraying the game and the public, whether inside or outside of baseball, and purge the grand old game of every breath of suspicion.

There is no use saying that the vast majority of baseball players are honest, loyal sportsmen. Everybody knows they are. It is due the loyal players and due the millions of fans throughout America that the results of the cleanup leave no cause for doubt or suspicion.

It's high time to clamp down the gambling lid all over the big league circuits.

Mrs. Abigail Wilton, an American woman, has sung "Lead, Kindly Light," 50,000 times in public.

1920 SERIES TO BE ON SQUARE, SAYS ATTORNEY

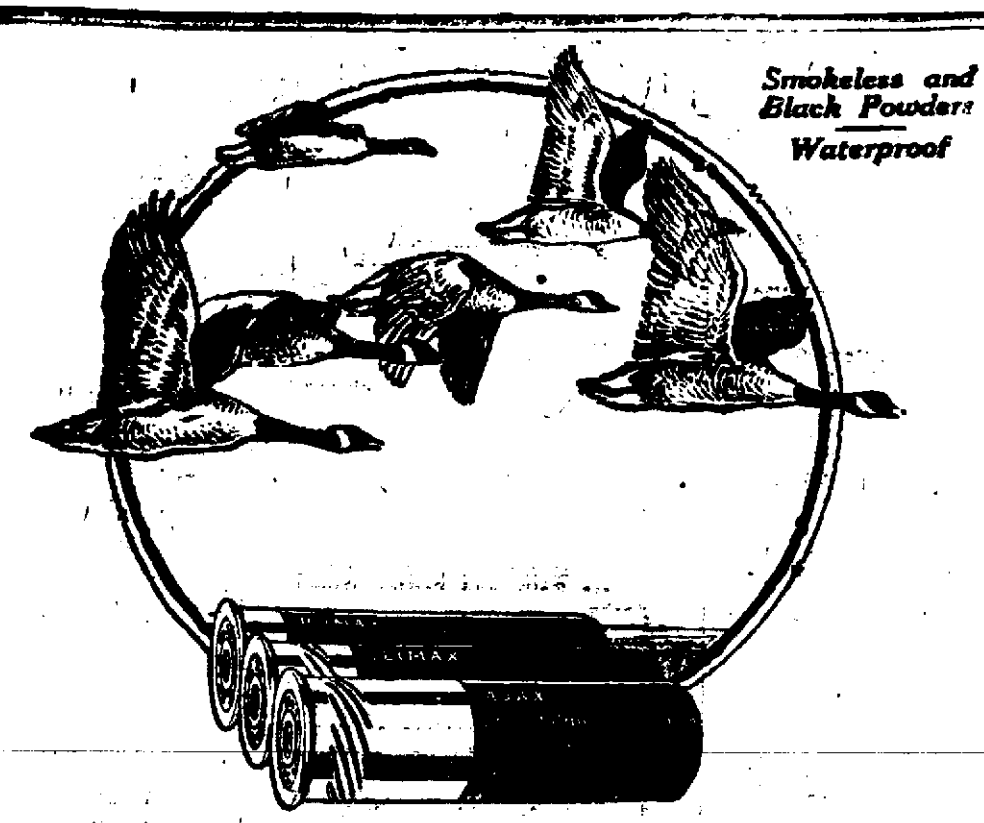

New York, Oct. 4.—Examination of members of the Brooklyn club of the National league by District Attorney Lewis of Kings county, was completed with this result.

The district attorney found that not only had none of the Superbas been approached in an attempt to "fix" the coming world's series but that "it would have been dangerous for gamblers to approach the representatives to make such advances to the new champions of the National League."

The district attorney said he was prompted to make the investigation because of vague rumors of alleged "fixing" contained in a newspaper story. Exonerating the Brooklyn players in emphatic terms, the examiner declared he had learned from conversations with the players of the dangerous ground upon which "fixers" would have been treading had they attempted crooked deals.

Minneapolis, Oct. 4.—Minnesota overwhelmed North Dakota on Northrop Field Saturday, 41 to 3, but the Flickertails achieved their ambition to score on the vaunted Gophers. It was a contest marred by frequent penalties for Minnesota, and many Gopher substitutes were used.

torback Arnston, captain, carried the burden of the Gopher attack with considerable success. While Burchnan and Richards of North Dakota with several cleverly executed forward passes gained major honors for the victors.

"Doc" Williams, motor of the Gopher eleven, kept well hidden any bag of tricks he may have taught his charger, for the Gophers played straight football and nothing else, attacking but six forward passes in the entire game, two of which were completed.

North Dakota, eager to score, resorted to a considerable repertoire, including 10 attempts at forward passing in the first two periods, with five successfully negotiated, and 13 trials in the last half with only two successes.

Burchman, the Dakota half, scored the Flickertails only points on a field goal from the 25-yard line in the final period, only a few minutes before the game ended.

ROBINSON LEADS MEN TO VICTORY FOR SECOND TIME

New York, Oct. 4.—Manager Wilbert Robinson, who for the second time in five years has led the Brooklyn National league club's players successfully as pennant winners to be contestants for the World Series Championships struggle, was born at Hudson, Mass., 56 years ago. For 36 years Robinson has been identified with the national game. Away back in 1884 he was catcher for the Haverhill, Massachusetts team for which at that time John Kinley Tener was one of the star pitching staff. During 1884 and the following season Tener and Robinson proved to be a very effective battery. Many years later pitcher Tener was elected governor of Pennsylvania and afterwards became the chief executive of the National Baseball League.

In 1886 Robinson joined the Philadelphia Athletics of the American Association and in his first major league game as catcher, scored the only run made by his team, which was beaten 4 to 1 by the New York Metropolitans. Robinson's fame as a catcher and batter as well as a fast baserunner is closely allied with Baltimore where he spent many years of his baseball career. Back in the 80's with McGraw, Jennings, Keeler, Kelly and others, Robinson established an enviable reputation as a great player when Ned Hanlon's famous Orioles won the championship three years in succession.

After McGraw became manager of the New York Giants in 1902 Robinson remained in Baltimore and played for several seasons with the International League club there.

In the development of pitchers Robinson was singularly successful and for several seasons he assisted his old friend McGraw in this department. He made several trips to the spring training camps of the Giants after he had ceased to be an active player. As a pitcher's coach with the New York Nationals he brought out Rube Marquard, who contributed his share to the winning of three successive pennants in 1911, '12 and '13.

Robinson began his management of the Brooklyn team in 1914 and two years later made them champions of
